LL.M. in International and European Law

Our new LL.M. in International and European Law builds on the very successful LL.M. programme we have created in the Athens LawSchool in the past ten years. It is an intensive one-year programme providing an in-depth theoretical and practical training in International and European Union Law.

Each strand consists of core and optional modules, interactive seminars and focus areas.

Tailor your studies according to your areas of interest:

- ✔ International & European Human Rights Law
- ✔ Law of the Sea
- ✔ Diplomatic and Consular Law and Diplomacy
- ✔ International & European Environmental Law
- ✔ International and EU Economic Law

Beyond the classroom

- Participation in international moot competitions
- Law clinics
- Internships in international Organisations, NGOs, domestic Institutions

Why Athens?

The Athens Law School has a long tradition of high-standard quality education offering the legal background for professional or research- oriented careers.

The Faculty consists of a team of renowned professors and guest lecturers in Public International and European Law, building on its strong links with international and European Institutions and the legal and diplomatic professions.
